A LIBERAL COMPROMISE. Mr. Alexander Doman said: "It is a most liberal compromise and should be accepted by the Legislature and the people."

Mr. H. M. Doble expressed himself as heartly in favor of the proposed plan of settlement, and thought it would be a great thing for the State to take the matter out of politics.

The same opinion was expressed by many other people who had, long and auxiously watched the question, and the hope is universally entertained that a settlement will be early reached.

When Justice Crutchfield ascended the throne of equity at the Police Court yesterday morning the Sergeant remarked to him: "If we are to continue having such dockets as this I see no need to hold court oftener than three times a week." The Justice looked over his glasses at the big books before him and ejaculated that it was a reflection upon that ever-brisk tribunal to have so slim a docket.

The case of the Waldens and W. B. Steward and R. W. Ivey was called, but neither Steward nor Ivey were present, sithough warrants and rules had been issued for them. These parties are accused of fighting and creating a disturbance in the rotunds of the Capitol, which affair was published in Thursday morning's Disparch. The officers who had been detailed to serve the papers upon Messra. Steward and Ivey reported that they had been unable to find them, and were under the opinion that both were out of the city. The case was then continued until all the parties in the affair can be brought before the Justice.

Weldon, N. C., November 19.—The case of the State against George Foreman (colored) for burglary was called in the Superior Court this morning. His counsel agreed to a verdict of burglary in the second degree and the Court sentenced him to the pententiary for a term of five years.

The case is without a parallel, it being in evidence that Foreman entered the residence of Mr. Wiley Cherry, of this county, about midnight and was found asleep upon the foot of a bed in which there were founded. One of the ladies discovered him upon the bed and ran screaming from the room, calling for help. Mr. Cherry went to her assistance, but the man was still asleep, and when aroused appeared in a dazed condition. He had not molested or attempted to molest any of the inmates of the house. The supposition is that he was drunk. The Last Day of the Automatic City. The Last Day of the Automatic City.

The many persons who have found so much to entertain and interest them in Borgman's weaderful automatic city and Swiss village, now on exhibition at No. 821 east Broad treet, will learn with resret that this is probably the last day this marvellous production will see on display in Richmond. Manager Borch announced early in the week that the exhibition would cally last this week here, and every day has found the blace through with eager speciators. The work is something that is entertaining and instructive, and those who go to-day will see it 107 the last time unless it should come again next year.

THE LEASE CONFIGNATION.

The Directors of the Penitentiary met to-day and confirmed the lease of the 5,500-acre farm of Senator Ransom, in Northampton county. This gives the penitentiary no less than 17,500 acres of these leased lands in the famous Roanoke-River Valley, one of the most fertile sections in the entire State.

As an instance of the advantages of the Disparch as a great news-gatherer, the Rev. J. A. Lee, of this town, informed me that he first heard of the death of Captain James Simmons, of this county, through an Asheville paper in an article duly credited to the Disparch. [Special telegram to the Dispatch.] PRYESSUES, V., November 20.—A shooting affray occurred this evening at the telegraph office of the Norfolk and Western railroad in this city, which came near being a serious affair. Mike Beck, a fireman on the Norfolk and Western railroad, was sitting in the office talking with several railroad-men, when F. A. Hartman, a section master on the same road, came into the office and commenced firing with a pistol at Beck. The first shot missed Beck, but the bullet glanced off from the side of a wall and inflicted a paintul wound in the right hand of Emmitt Cardwell, an engineer, who was standing in the room.

A SECOND SHOT.

Hartman fired a second shot at Beck as he was trying to make his escape. The buliet passed between Beck's legs, going through his pants and just taking the skin off his right leg. Beck says the shooting was caused by a difficulty he had with Hartman several weeks ago, since which time Hartman had sworn he would get even. It was a sad coincidence that the residence of Mrs. Carr, in which Major Selden died, was the one from which the brilliant wedding party of Mr. Henry Bohmer and Miss Addie Lyons started Thursday night.

DEATH OF MES. SABAH F. HUBAND. Mrs. Sarah F. Huband, an old and bighly-esteemed lady, died at the residence of her daughter, on Church Hill, yesterday morning of bronchial affection. Deceased was the last surviving child of John Dudley and Ann Jane Armstrong, the lastnamed of whom preceded her to the grave by a few months at the advanced age of eighty-five years, and widow of the late Ephraim Huband, who for a number of years was chief baker at the Exchange and Ballard hotels in this city and during the war Government baker to the Confederate forces in and around Charlottesville. She leaves six children—Mrs. V. C. Wilt, F. L. Richards, Mattie, Charles H., and James E. Huband, of this city, and Mrs. Thomas I. Raines, of Manchester. Her funeral will take place from St. John's church at 3 o'clock this afternoon. Mrs. Sarah F. Huband, an old and high-ARMY OF NORTHERN VIRGINIA.

In the Circuit Court yesterday in the suit of the Merchants National Bank against the Gallican Fishermen Association and others the jury rendered a verdict against that association—Hoyali Backs, C. De Justo, and James H. Glarks—for $255.10. William Custalo, J. H. Hill, and others, defondants, were not included in the verdict, and the suit as to them was dismissed.

In the case of Mary Bollard against the city of Richmond a verdict was rendered in favor of the plaintiff for $250. This was an action for injuries alleged to have been received by the plaintiff from 5 fall on Charch streat, for the condition of which the city, it was claimed, was responsible. Damages were laid at $2.000.

This funny absurdity has been here several times and never has failed to please the large audiences that have greeted it. Additions have been made both in the cast and material numbers. There is no semblance of a plot, but a string of comical situations, lokes, songs, and dances that keep you in a roar of laughter till the last fall of the curtain. Buenes Arms, November 20.—A serious accident occurred to-day on the Buenes Ayres and Ensenda railway, and all the passengers had an almost miraculous escape from a most horrible death. The train was crossing a high viaduct, which carries the line across a deep gorge, when, owing to some unexplained reason, one of the carriages jumped from the rails, dragging the others atter it. The whole train was derailed. Two of the carriages plunged over the side of the viaduct and fell to the ground. Fortunately as they went over the coupling-pins broke and the other carriages remained on the viaduct. Quite a number of passengers were in the two cars that had fallen, but, strange to say, none of them were killed. Eight, however, were seriously injured.
